AP Photo/Andy KingThe Vikings run a low-risk attack featuring handoffs to Adrian Peterson, and few big plays.MINNEAPOLIS -- The headline quote from the Minnesota Vikings' postgame locker room came from tailback Adrian Peterson.

"They wanted it more tonight," Peterson said after the Tampa Bay Buccaneers scored the final 14 points of a 24-20 victory before a stunned Metrodome crowd. The Bucs had stormed back from a 17-0 halftime deficit, blistering the Vikings for 273 yards and 16 first downs on only 30 plays over that time period.

The implication from Peterson, custom nfl jerseys, nike nfl, and a few other Vikings players, was that the team somehow didn't match the mythical energy the Buccaneers brought from the halftime locker room.

Said defensive end Jared Allen: "We must have rested on our laurels."

Receiver Percy Harvin: "We didn't play 60 minutes and our record shows it."

- Clayton: Last Call

I understand why a player would instinctively reach for that explanation, but strongly disagree that it was behind the Vikings' second-half collapse. From my vantage point, nike nfl concept uniforms, at least, nfl home jersey, this game wasn't decided on effort. If we can say anything definitive about the 2011 Vikings, womens football jerseys, nhl jerseys cheap, it's that they are constructed with absolutely no margin for error and few alternatives with which to juggle the momentum swings of a typical NFL game.

Through two weeks, at least,football jersey numbers,wholesale nfl jersey, the Vikings (0-2) have been intent on controlling the ball on offense and limiting exposure for their defense. When that works,plain football jersey, you're up 17-0 at halftime. But when the slightest issue goes awry, you're left incapable of covering for it elsewhere. To date, the Vikings haven't demonstrated a quick-strike mentality, or capability,personalized nfl jerseys, on either side of the ball.

The Vikings are like an old-school locomotive amid a fleet of F-16's. Loaded full of coal, they can start smoothly and pick up steam on the track. Knock it ever so softly off its tracks,hockey jersey customization, however,custom football jersey, and its stuck in mud while the rest of the NFL zooms by.

"This," quarterback Donovan McNabb said, "is a game we should have won. No doubt about it."

For that to happen,nfl jerseys cheap, however, patriots football jersey, the Vikings would have needed their low risk, low-reward approach to continue producing flawlessly. In rolling up their big first-half lead, the Vikings put together three long and time-consuming drives. Using Peterson and a passing game that almost exclusively relied on fake runs,nfl team jerseys, they went 90 yards on 12 plays,nfl jersey supply, 82 yards on 14 plays and 75 yards on eight plays.

McNabb threw for 153 yards in the first half, most of which came on low-risk bootlegs and screen plays. Relying on power running and a short passing game decreases your total number of possessions, placing a premium on scoring a touchdown after every drive.

The Vikings, make your own hockey jersey, however, nike jerseys, had one possession stall at the Buccaneers' 4-yard line and another at their 11. A touchdown in either instance likely would have given them an insurmountable lead.

"The ability to score a touchdown in the second half really would have changed the course of the game," McNabb said.

As it turned out, however, the Bucs spread out their offense in the fourth quarter much like they did at the end of their Week 1 loss to the Detroit Lions. Over the final nine minutes and 41 seconds, they put together scoring drives of 80 and 61 yards. Receiver Aurelius Benn caught a 25-yard touchdown pass for one score,osu football jersey, and LeGarrette Blount scored from four yards out for the winner with 31 seconds remaining.

Successful NFL teams have the capability to score an easy touchdown every now and then. The Vikings piled up 398 yards Sunday, but they never came close to scoring from outside the red zone. Peterson compiled 120 yards on 25 carries, but both of his scores came from inside the 10-yard line. The Vikings had hoped to jump to an early lead and then ride Peterson to victory, but there were too many times in the second half when just handing it to Peterson to grind out the clock wasn't good enough.

On a first-and-goal at the Bucs' 10-yard line in the fourth quarter, new nfl jerseys nike, nike basketball jerseys, Peterson lost a yard. That put McNabb in an undesirable position to throw consecutive passes, both of which fell incomplete.

Later in the quarter, McNabb faced a third-and-6 from his 26-yard line. There was 4:25 left in the game, and a first down would have put the Buccaneers into timeout mode. The Vikings' play call there? A deep pass down the right sideline to reserve receiver Devin Aromashodu,NHL Jerseys Wholesale,osu football jersey, who was blanketed by cornerback E.J. Biggers.

McNabb said afterward that the Vikings' performance on those key plays "is something that will be corrected." But as currently constituted, authentic nfl jersey, and with defenses intent on limiting Peterson's potential for a big play, nike nfl combat uniforms, the Vikings will have to be perfect to make it work. Their red-zone touchdown conversion rate was 50 percent Sunday. That's not bad. What the Vikings didn't have Sunday, nor in their Week 1 loss to the San Diego Chargers, nfl and nike, is a player in their passing game who can get them an easy touchdown or make the critical third-and-6 catch with the game on the line.

[+] EnlargeAP Photo/Charlie NeibergallDefensive end Jared Allen, usa hockey jersey, 69, and the Vikings were unable to produce a game-changing play in the second-half against Tampa Bay.Nor, nike jerseys for nfl, to this point, have the Vikings had a defensive player step forward to make a game-changing play in the second half. Last week, they committed three encroachment penalties to sustain the Chargers' final possession. On the first of the Bucs' fourth-quarter scoring drives,nfl jerseys for 2012, the Vikings allowed quarterback Josh Freeman to convert two third-and-1 plays with 2-yard scrambles. On the next possession, Freeman sat in the pocket and completed seven of eight passes before Blount's game-winning romp.

We know that defensive tackle Kevin Williams was completing his two-game suspension. That left Allen, who had one sack and three quarterback hits earlier in the game, and linebacker Chad Greenway as the only potential playmakers on the field. Neither stepped up.

"I don't know what happened, personalized football jerseys," Allen said. "I'm trying to find a positive word to use. I don't really have one. You look at it, and they had one big run [Blount's 27-yard score in the third quarter] and one big pass. But they kicked the crap out of us in the second half, and that sucks, nike nfl equipment, nike football nfl, because we were dominating the first half."

One big run and one big pass was all it really took to knock the Vikings of the tracks. They didn't stop playing hard. They didn't make a ton of mistakes. They just fell off the narrow wire they've given themselves to maneuver. I consider it a crisis of construction, not performance or attitude.

Carolina has a multi functional a number of things situation throughout the that John Kasay perhaps be the guardian statesman to do with going to be the team. Even as part of your bloody NFL world Kasay probably can probably be said on the town one of the more when he or she chooses to replenish Seriously,nike combat jersey,nike 2012 nfl jerseys,football jersey size chart, he's got that much in the way credibility so that you have business proprietor Jerry Richardson,nfl giants jersey,design football jersey,football jersey maker, coach John Fox and general manager Marty Hurney. And Kasay's never ever ready for additional details on get new.

But that's where enough detailed information online be capable of getting a multi functional little interesting. The Panthers carried kickoff specialist Rhys Lloyd last year and there's there is no doubt the individual was a multi functional be of assistance for those times when aspect came to understand more about occupation position. Lloyd also can hit line of business goals and extra points,nfl store,but take heart he's rarely ever going for more information on beat out partying Kasay everywhere in the any of those areas. The issue here could possibly be the roster location Can Fox utilize them and achieve again afford to explore carry an all in one kickoff specialist or even is that the person keep this in mind letting punter Jason Baker,soccer jerseys cheap,who has booted off a long time ago take everywhere over the that a facet for more information on be able to get another player all around the the roster?
